

READY FOR VIEWING . . . The new wing of Torrance Memorial Hospital on Engracia Ave. will be open to the public from 2 to 4 p.m. today. Hospital officials headed by Board President Henry W. Creger will be on hand to greet visitors. The wing will be put into service next week end.

Chamber Fete

(Continued from Page 1) which had been transformed into a tropical paradise, complete with ferns and a bubbling fountain. Directors of the Chamber and their ladies were seated just below the stage at a long table facing the crowded auditorium.

Table decorations, the floral and garden settings were arranged by Mrs. Hermi Tillim, chairman of the city's recreation commission, and Kenny Uyeda, member of the city's planning commission.

The dinner, featuring a 14-oz. New York steak, was served by members of the Torrance Y-Teens after it was prepared under the supervision of Ray Bell of the Palms.

Dinner Chairman R. S. "Dick" Pyle arranged the affair for the board.

Among the guests at the dinner were members of the City Council, city department heads and a large number of business and industrial leaders of the area.

PARK LAKES

There are more than 250 lakes within the limits of Glacier National Park.

Levy Honored

(Continued from Page 1) well during 50 years of service. Members of the city's service clubs also were honored by John Ebbinghouse, outgoing president of the Chamber. Each was called forward to receive plaques noting their contribution to the welfare of the community.

Growth Reviewed A. E. "Tommy" Thompson, officially installed as the 1957 Chamber president, reviewed the growth of the city and cited the industrial development here, including the new Coleman and Vickers plant and the new Ryan plans announced this week.

The Rev. Robert Richards, Olympic pole vaulting champion, was the principal speaker, comparing the competition of sports to that of life.

"World championships are only won when you hurt," he said. He drew a parallel, saying the most successful in business and other phases of life are those who "drive until it hurts."

SHIPPING SPACE

Collapsible steel barrels have been developed to conserve shipping space.

Torrance High Girls Win 11 Of 14 Offices

It was ladies' day at Torrance High School Wednesday, as the girls walked off with 11 of the top 14 offices in the all-school elections. Two of three offices won by boys are traditional male strongholds.

Berta Rogan, however, burst into another male stronghold, becoming the first girl in anybody's memory to be named student body president, succeeding Don Kelley. Upholding male dignity was Victor Masaki, student body vice president.

The other two offices captured by boys included Boys League President Phillip Edwards and Commissioner of Athletics Steve Foster.

The other female winners included Joyce Cannon, senior president; Moni Johnson, junior president; Carol Johnson, sophomore president; and Betty Yoshiooka, Girls League president.

Commissioners elected were Virginia Sandstrom, group control; Barbara Balow, activities; Bonnie Fletcher, pep; Janet Zuber, records; and Diana Cook, finance.

Study Techniques 4. Set up techniques and/or approaches which will lead to better use of the pupil progress reports.

5. Provide for better and continuing orientation of teachers to the use of the reporting system. Encourage teacher to avoid a "too positive" or "too negative" approach in individual conferences and to give a frank, honest report. Consider current practices successfully used by teachers and principals to interpret the child's abilities—both to the child and to the parent.

Parent Conferences 6. Have parent conferences accompany the written report for added information and provide a form for parents and teachers jointly to work out a program for the child's benefit, with carbon copies to be kept for future reference.

7. An evaluation of the revamped program after it has been in operation for a year.

8. Reports to parents will be emphasized during the next school year.

9. Letter grades will be given to parents of seventh and eighth graders, upon request.
